

Drew Weitz

Director of Equity Research
Portfolio Manager

Drew first came to Weitz Investment Management in 1998, while a student at Carleton College, working in various departments including client services, operations and research. After graduating in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in computer science, Drew moved to Chicago in 2004 where he worked as a research associate and research analyst for Ariel Investments. In 2008, Drew returned to Omaha and Weitz Investment Management as an equity research analyst. He became co-manager of Hickory Fund in December 2011 and was appointed director of equity research in April 2017 where he oversees the Weitz equity research team and process. Drew volunteers on the advisors group for OneWorld Community Health Centers and serves on the boards of The UNION for Contemporary Art and Carleton College's Alumni Annual Fund.

About Weitz Investment Management

Founded by value investor Wally Weitz in 1983, Weitz Investment Management, Inc. is a boutique, employee-owned asset management firm headquartered in Omaha, Nebraska.

Over the past three decades, Weitz has leveraged its research-driven approach to capitalize on opportunities that arise out of market inefficiencies. Decisions are backed by thorough research, logical strategies, extensive debate and our team's personal commitment to long-term results.

The Weitz team builds and manages concentrated, high-conviction, actively managed portfolios. Through bottom-up, proprietary research that emphasizes fundamentals, we focus on creating positive results over the long term. We offer a variety of options for investors with different goals and preferences, including equity and fixed income investment strategies.
