

Nolan Anderson

Portfolio Manager
Research Analyst

Nolan dedicates his time and skills to identifying new opportunities for our fixed income portfolios. He joined Weitz Investment Management in November 2011 and co-manages Core Plus Income Fund, Short Duration Income Fund and Ultra Short Government Fund. Previously, he performed financial modeling and due diligence on leveraged buyout transactions for Wells Fargo Bank in San Francisco. From 2004-2007 he worked as a commercial real estate research analyst for Woodmen of the World Life Insurance Society in Omaha. Nolan holds a bachelor's degree in real estate and land use economics and a master's in business administration from the University of Nebraska Omaha.

About Weitz Investment Management

Founded by value investor Wally Weitz in 1983, Weitz Investment Management, Inc. is a boutique, employee-owned asset management firm headquartered in Omaha, Nebraska.

Over the past three decades, Weitz has leveraged its research-driven approach to capitalize on opportunities that arise out of market inefficiencies. Decisions are backed by thorough research, logical strategies, extensive debate and our team's personal commitment to long-term results.

The Weitz team builds and manages concentrated, high-conviction, actively managed portfolios. Through bottom-up, proprietary research that emphasizes fundamentals, we focus on creating positive results over the long term. We offer a variety of options for investors with different goals and preferences, including equity and fixed income investment strategies.