

Tom Carney, CFA

Portfolio Manager

Tom joined Weitz Investments in 1995 as a fixed income analyst. His conservative instincts provide a notable advantage in managing our fixed income portfolios. Tom is the portfolio manager of Nebraska Tax-Free Income Fund and co-manages Core Plus Income Fund, Short Duration Income Fund and Ultra Short Government Fund. Tom began his investment career in 1982 at Chiles, Heider & Co., Inc., a regional brokerage firm in Omaha, where he held several positions. In 1986, he became a municipal securities professional with Smith Barney in Omaha. Four years later, he completed his Bachelor of Science degree in finance at the University of Nebraska Omaha. He has been a CFA® charterholder since 1999 and was the president of the CFA Society of Nebraska from 2005-2006.

About Weitz Investment Management

Founded by value investor Wally Weitz in 1983, Weitz Investment Management, Inc. is a boutique, employee-owned asset management firm headquartered in Omaha, Nebraska.

Over the past three decades, Weitz has leveraged its research-driven approach to capitalize on opportunities that arise out of market inefficiencies. Decisions are backed by thorough research, logical strategies, extensive debate and our team's personal commitment to long-term results.

The Weitz team builds and manages concentrated, high-conviction, actively managed portfolios. Through bottom-up, proprietary research that emphasizes fundamentals, we focus on creating positive results over the long term. We offer a variety of options for investors with different goals and preferences, including equity and fixed income investment strategies.
