How did the Fund perform for the period?

The Fund (Ticker: WVALX) returned 3.05% for the 6-month period ended September 30, 2025.

Top contributors included AI infrastructure beneficiaries Oracle Corp., Alphabet Inc., Microsoft Corp., Meta Platforms Inc., and healthcare company IDEXX Laboratories Inc., which reported strong results. Primary detractors were Gartner Inc., CarMax Inc., Global Payments Inc., Accenture plc, and Charter Communications Inc. IT service providers (Accenture and Gartner) were restrained as investors reassessed their roles in an AI-driven environment. Charter and CarMax posted disappointing results, while Global Payments' acquisition of Worldpay, though we believe strategically sound, surprised investors.
